2 Drops of "GETS-IT," Out Comes the Corn!

It's the World's Wonder; Never Fails You'll make goo-goo eyes at your feet, after ou use "GETS-IT," and you'll find the places you use "GETS-IT," and you'll find the places sprinkled on Rutland streets to lay the where those blankety corns used to be, just as dust.

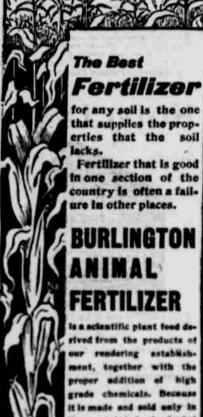

lous among the millions of first in the world that "GETS-IT" will not renove—there's no escape, "GETS-IT" is the new way, the simple, common-sense, sure way. It does away with greasy ointments, salves, pads, cotton rings, harnesses, knives, scissors, razors, files, and the limping and the painful pigeon-toc walk of so many corn-pestered people. All you do is put two drops of "GETS-IT" on—the corn shrivels up—and good-bye. Nothing else in the world like "GETS-IT." Millions are using it. There's no pain, no trouble, no changing shoes because of corns.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

A Former Resident of Barre Dead in Seattle.

Byron Goodenough Carleton, a veterin of the late Judge Hiram Carleton died, in Seattle, Wash., April 5, after an illness of several months of Bright's disease. Mr. Carleton was born in Berlin Jan. 29, 1846, a son of Hiram and Melissa (Goodenough) Carleton. At the age of 16 by giving his age as 18 he enlisted, joining at Barre, Co. I, 8th Vermont infantry, of which the late Gen. Stephen Thomas was colonel. He also served for a time in the 26th New York cavalry, being mustered out in June 1864. J. B. Morse of Montpelier was a member the war Mr. Carleton went west, locating in St. Paul, Minn., where he engaged in the lumber business. He was in Minneapolis when Hennepin avenue was laid out in a grove of scrub oaks and lots were selling at from $25 to $40 each. In 1890 he disposed of his property in Rush City, Minn., where he was then loented, and went to Seattle, when that city contained about 2500 inhabitants and has seen it grow to be the second city on the Pacific coast. The last years of his life were spent on his ranch on Hood's canal, an inlet of Puget sound, in sight of the grand Olympic mountains he loved so well. Mr. Carleton never married and is survived by J. E. Goode-nough of Middlesex, Mrs. C. F. Chase of Concord, N. H., and E. A. Goodenough bury. Goodenough of Montpeller was also a
